

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of the European Society for Clinical Investigation (ESCI), we are delighted to invite you to the Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM) 2025, which will take place in Genoa, Italy, on May 21-23, 2025.

ESCI has always been a unique platform that fosters interaction between basic, translational, and clinical research, bringing together experts from different disciplines. This year's ASM will feature five scientific tracks:

- ◆ Cardiovascular Sciences
- ◆ Endocrinology, Hepatology, Obesity & Metabolism
- ◆ Mitochondria & Bioenergetics
- ◆ Oncohematology
- ◆ Rheumatology

The meeting will provide an outstanding opportunity to present your research, connect with leading experts, and engage with a dynamic scientific community. We are honored to host internationally renowned speakers, including Gyorgy Baffy, Peter Libby, Lina Badimon, and Gema Fruhbeck.

- ◆ Abstract submission deadline: March 1, 2025, many travel grants available!
- ◆ Reduced registration fee available until mid-March (ESCI membership required, free of charge)
- ◆ High chances of being selected for oral presentations
- ◆ Awards for best abstracts and best oral presentations in each track
- ◆ Young Investigator Awards for outstanding contributions in Basic/Translational Science and Clinical Science (apply here: <https://esci.eu.com/esci-awards/esci-young-investigator-award/>)

We warmly invite researchers at all career stages to participate. You can find all the details on the official ESCI website: <https://esci.eu.com/>

We look forward to welcoming you to Genoa for an exciting and inspiring meeting!

Best regards,

Gemma Vilahur
